PLACER COUNTY AND FIRST 5 PLACER CELEBRATE “DIA DEL NIÑO” – CHILDREN’S DAY

Auburn, CA – In Mexico, Día del Niño (Children’s Day) is a day to celebrate children, families and reading. This nationally recognized celebration is filled with activities that emphasize the importance of literacy for children of all linguistic and cultural backgrounds.

On Wednesday, Placer County Superintendent of Schools Gayle Garbolino-Mojica and First 5 Placer teamed up to celebrate Children’s Day in Placer County with a special reading of From Head to Toe by Eric Carle at the Little Blue School House in Lincoln. As a special treat, all students received their own copy of the book.

“Reading is the foundation to student success,” said Superintendent Garbolino-Mojica. “As the Placer County Superintendent of Schools, I am committed to ensuring even our youngest learners have a world class, relevant education.”
