

FREE SPEECH PROTOCOLS

The First Amendment protects several basic freedoms in the United States including freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, the right to peacefully assemble, and the right to petition the government.

The Placer County Office of Education supports the rights of citizens to express themselves through organized non-disruptive demonstrations in public spaces.

Additional Information:

- Appropriate free-speech public spaces are outlined on the map.
- If you would like to make an appointment at a later date to share your feedback, please email superintendent@placercoe.org.
- You may also mail a letter to: PCOE, ATTN: Superintendent, 1400 W. Stanford Ranch Road, Rocklin, CA 95765.

- ✓ Picket or protest in public spaces.
- ✓ Distribute leaflets, flyers or other literature in public spaces.
- ✓ Chant or sing protest songs in public spaces.
- ✗ Block access to sidewalks or buildings or impede traffic.
- ✗ March in the streets without a permit.
- ✗ Disrupt operations or enter non-public/school spaces.
- ✗ Engage in speech that is obscene, vulgar, or that is likely to incite an immediate disruptive or dangerous disturbance.

PCOE Headquarters, Rocklin

Free Speech Areas

Prohibited Areas

(The areas in red are prohibited areas that include non-public spaces, school property, and/or employee/operations access points.)

PCOE Secondary Administrative Office, Auburn

Free Speech Areas

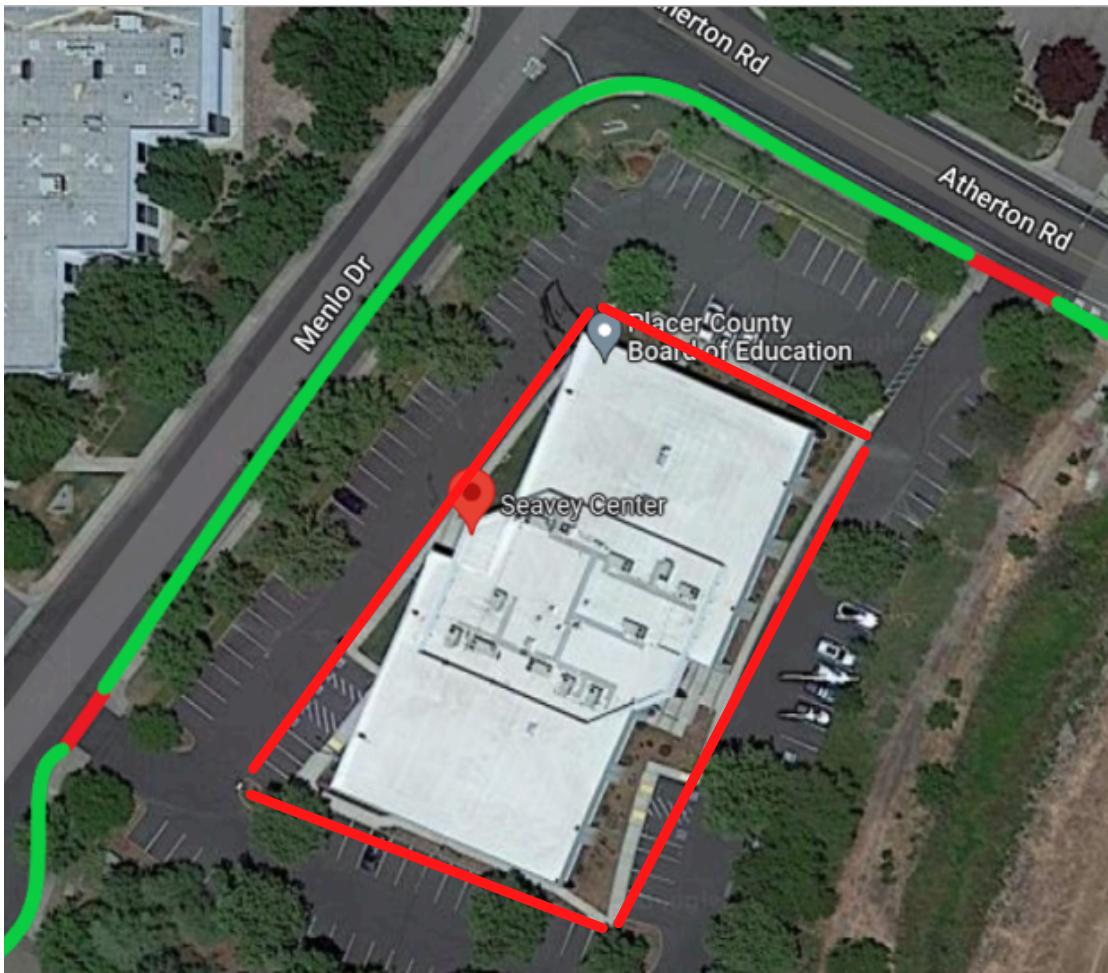

Prohibited Areas

(The areas in red are prohibited areas that include non-public spaces, school property, and/or employee/operations access points.)

PCOE Seavey Professional Development Center, Rocklin

Free Speech
Areas

Prohibited
Areas

(The areas in red are prohibited areas that include non-public spaces, school property, and/or employee/operations access points.)